

The FCC belongs to the public and should not be a tool of any one ideology or party.
If one point of view is aired, the alternative views should receive equal time.
Thank you